PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear CFUW Colleagues

Hard to believe that we are moving into August now. With the 2022-2023 year ahead of us, we are looking forward to the Program Committee plans for the upcoming months. Many of the CFUW members enjoyed the sunset at Hibou in early July and a wonderful presentation by local photographer, John Fearnall. It was a perfect evening and we were able to welcome some new members, as well as, guests that evening. Many thanks to the Program group for organizing a casual and informative evening at Hibou Conservation Area.

Our next CFUW event is the Jubilee Tea on August 9th at 2 pm hosted by the Program Committee and held at Styn Furness’ farm. We are all looking forward to seeing everyone, reconnecting with current members and greeting new members. It should be a fun event, especially enjoying tea and cake together. Please remember that we will also be doing our membership renewals at that time, as well as hearing updates on upcoming events from the Program Committee.

As many of you know, on July 24, 2022 in Chesley, 70 residents of the federal riding of Bruce-Grey-Owen Sound were recognized for their contributions to the community with a Queen’s Jubilee coin. Many local people were recognized for their contributions to arts, culture, community service and business enterprises. We are very proud to offer our congratulations to our CFUW member, Jan Chamberlain, a recipient of this award, for her contributions to many community organizations, including her work with the Council of Aging and past Chair of Community Foundation Grey-Bruce amongst her many other commitments. Well done, Jan. You are truly an inspiration for us all!

I just found that the CFUW National AGM is scheduled for August 27, 2022 from 9 am to 1 pm by Zoom. I have no further info at this time, but will pass on any updates with registration, etc. when available.

I hope everyone enjoys the rest of the summer weather with friends and family. I look forward to seeing everyone for tea on August 9th at 2pm.

Sincerely,
Anne
